

Teaching Opportunity!
Sunday Class Leads for the Child and Youth Religious Education Program at the Unitarian Church of Calgary.

$17/hr – 3 hrs per week on Sundays

We are looking to fill four positions for Class Leads. The time commitment would be 3 hours per week on Sundays. Classes are kept small, generally 6 to 12 children per class. The curriculum, weekly class outline and materials will be provided along with a volunteer helper. Class time is 75 to 90 minutes long, with the remaining time devoted to staff meetings and prep.

There are some Sundays off for certain holidays and events, and your summers are free. Employment would commence September 15th, 2017 to June 15th, 2018 with opportunities to continue employment the following September.

We are looking for energetic and enthusiastic teachers with some experience with children and youth. Previous teaching experience and first aid training or certification is an asset. A current criminal/vulnerable sector check will need to be done upon hiring.

If applying to work with young people over the age of 10 then you must be 25 years or older

Pre-school
Elementary
Middle School
Junior High

We are a liberal faith that is welcoming to the LGBTQ community. Please check out our website at unitarianscalgary.org and read through the material to ensure you are comfortable with the potential curriculum. Membership in the Unitarian Church is not required.

To apply: Clearly indicate which class age group(s) you are applying for. Then send your cover letter and resume to the Director of Religious Education at: dre@unitarianscalgary.org

The deadline for applications is September 8th, 2017.